

TITLE 170 INDIANA UTILITY REGULATORY COMMISSION

FISCAL IMPACT ANALYSIS

LSA Document #20-89

I. Estimated Fiscal Impact on State and Local Government.

None.

II. Anticipated Effective Date of the Rule.

- The Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission (Commission) should receive the Office of Management and Budget's fiscal impact statement within forty-five (45) days of submission. IC 4-22-2-28(d).
- The total cost of the rule is less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). Therefore, the public hearing can take place twenty-one (21) days after the Proposed Rule is published. IC 4-22-2-28(c) and IC 4-22-2-24.
- Assume two (2) weeks for the public comment period.
- Assume thirty (30) days for staff to review public comments and assemble the rule packet.
- The Attorney General has forty-five (45) days to review the packet. IC 4-22-2-32(g).
- The Governor's office has up to thirty (30) days to review the packet. IC 4-22-2-34(b).
- The rule is effective thirty (30) days from the date the Legislative Services Agency accepts the rule for filing. IC 4-22-2-36.

Therefore, based on the facts and timeline above, the Commission anticipates the rule to be fully promulgated and effective on or around 205 days (6.7 months) from the publication of the Notice of Intent.

III. Revenue.

A. Sources of revenue affected by the rule.

The following sources of revenue are potentially affected by this rule:

1. None.

B. Estimated change in government revenues or expenditures.

The following state or local government revenues are estimated to increase or decrease as a result of implementation of this rule:

1. None, the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission is already performing the functions required by this rule.

The following state or local government expenditures are estimated to increase or decrease as a result of implementation of this rule:

1. None.

The costs above include the costs necessary to enforce the rule, specifically the following:

1. No cost to state or local government to enforce the rule.

C. Related citations.

The costs or revenues above are related to the following provisions of the rule:
None.

IV. Appropriations, Distributions, or Other Expenditures of Revenue Affected by the Rule.

D. Appropriations.

The following appropriations are potentially affected by this rule:

1. None.

E. Distributions.

The following distributions are potentially affected by this rule:

1. None.

F. Expenditures or revenue.

The following expenditures or revenue are potentially affected by this rule:

1. None.

G. Related citations.

The costs or revenues above are related to the following provisions of the rule:
None.

V. Administrative Impact to State and Local Governments.

None. The Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission is already performing the functions required by this rule.

H. Related citations.

The costs or revenues above are related to the following provisions of the rule:
None.

VI. Unfunded Mandate.

The Commission has made a determination concerning the extent to which the proposed rule creates an unfunded mandate on a state agency or political subdivision. This rule does not create an unfunded mandate.

VII. Readoption of Expiring Rule.

N/A